Weathernews Sea Planning Seminar

Hiroyoshi Ishibashi

Founder and Global CEO of Weathernews Inc.

I would like to extend my warm welcome to all participants to Weathernews SEA PLANNING SEMINAR; to engage ourselves in a dialogue with our European Shipping customers. I hope you will find our SEA PLANNING SEMINAR informative, eye-opening, enjoyable and worth your time.

Francis Yukawa

European President of Weathernews Inc.

It is with great pleasure for Weathernews to host this seminar for our important European shipping customers. We pride ourselves as the pioneer service provider for Voyage Planning, and our services have now been significantly expanded to meet every need of the shipping community. I am therefore very much looking forward to seeing a productive two-way dialogue in this seminar.

Con Carey

Managing Director of Weathernews UK

A warm welcome to our UK customers and guests, on behalf of not only myself, but also the rest of my UK team. I hope this seminar will prove an interesting one and that it will highlight the very real benefits of allowing Weathernews to help your business.

Antonio Brizzo

Managing Director of Weathernews Italia

On behalf of Weathernews Italia, I am very honoured and pleased to invite you to play a part in the Sea Planning Seminar to be held in London. This will be a milestone for the shipping industry and we are pleased to share this significant event with all our most important customers in Europe.

Rémy Combaret

President of Weathernews France

A warm "Bienvenue" to all participants to the Weathernews Sea Planning Seminar. Weathernews is recognised in the marine industry for its top quality services with high added value. During the Weathernews Sea Planning Seminar, we will share with you our most recent innovations and I hope this will be a place to share ideas for our mutual benefits.
